“Sergiu Celibidache’s Garden” is an intimate portrait of the world famous and respected classical conductor and composer Sergiu Celibidache. This ambitious cinema docu-drama, directed by the Maestro’s son, follows the maestro on tours, during the master-classes he held, through rehearsal with the Munich Philharmoniker, but also in the familiarity of his home at Neuville-sur-Essonne, close to Paris. The film crew’s main objective was to recreate Celibidache’s universe on the widescreen and although he usually avoided publicity, Celibidache made himself extremely available for the film.

The movie projection took place at Grand Cinema DigiPLEX from Băneasa Shopping City. The movie trailer can be watched by accessing the following link:
