Trăiește muzica, trăiește sunetul

11th of May 2012, BUCHAREST – FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

CELIBIDACHE by Jan Schmidt-Garre, in Bucharest!

The premiere of the second movie about the Maestro, called “Celibidache” by Jan Schmidt-Garre, took place yesterday evening, 10th of May 2012. The projection at the Grand EPIKA Hall, at the Grand Cinema Digiplex from Băneasa Shopping City, is a part of the First Edition of Sergiu Celibidache Festival. The director could not be at the premiere of his movie due to medical reasons, as he has a broken leg.

„To meet with Sergiu Celibidache, to listen to his concerts and rehearsals, to study with him in his classes and in private lessons and to share his presence on many private occasions is one of the greatest gifts I received in my life. Until today Celibidache's uncompromising personality and his knowledge about the arts are with me every day. I am happy that I could convey some of my deep experiences through my film and I am again happy that it will be shown here in Bucharest. I was looking forward to being part of the festival but I broke my foot and can't travel right now. I wish this beautiful festival good luck and hope that it will lead many more people to Celibidache's unique perspective on music and life. With regards, Jan Schmidt-Garre”, declared the director of the movie.
