Trăiește muzica, trăiește sunetul

23rd of May 2012, BUCHAREST – FOR IMMEDIATE BISTRIBUTION

The premiere of the movie „Romanian Born to Conduct a World”

On the 24th of May, at 7.30 pm, the premiere of the movie „Romanian Born to Conduct a World” will take place, as a testimony of a fascinating personality, of the strength to succeed worldwide from Roman, Neamț county. The movie will be projected in the Grand Epika Hall at the Grand Cinema Băneasa in Băneasa Shopping City, and is made by the Fundatia Sergiu Celibidache, in co-production with the Romanian Television.

”Music does not corespond to a way of being. Music is a becoming, is something that is born, grows, reaches a point of expansion and dies. Like a plant, like a feeling, like any other human activity...”, Sergiu Celibidache.

Beyond music there is eternity through the transcending of the sensations... Sergiu Celibidache was born, reached a point of maximum expansion and went beyond this point of „musical impressions” – like he used to say – towards an absolut transcendal into the cultural patrimony of Humanity.

Through this movie we discover, for 80 minutes, the pure Romanian universe of Sergiu Celibidache. The interviews and recordings of Sergiu Celibidache from the archives of the Romanian Television, during his visits to Romania, represent a unique testimony of the man that stated: „I am Romanian and I will die Romanian”. „Romanian Born to Conduct a World” invites the audience to join the perfection lovers in a special journey in Celibidache’s world – the Romanian who saw the Absolute through the musical key hole, reshaping for us and for eternity the universe of sound...
