16TH OF MAY, BUCHAREST – FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Sergiu Celibidache's dream becomes a reality for you too!

The masterclass session, part of the Sergiu Celibidache Festival, was one of good omen for the young people that enrolled and actively participated at these classes. The most talented out of these participants will have the possibility to continue their studies abroad, under the guidance of world-renowned artists. Until this moment, following the violin masterclass held, between the 10th and the 14th of May, by Maestra Ida Haendel, Mălina Ciobanu distinguished herself, a 13-year-old girl from Iași and Anna-Maria Cristina Popan, aged 10, from Timișoara.

„Ida Haendel was impressed by several young instrumentists who participated in her masterclass, as a part of the Sergiu Celibidache Festival, in such a way that we, the Fundația, have decided to enroll these talented children in the violin masterclass of Rony Rogoff, which will be held between the 25th and the 29th of May; and we are thinking of offering a scholarship, from us, in order to study violin in New York, with Rony Rogoff, or in Germany with a violinist Maestro from the circle of international artists of our foundation. It is our obligation to offer a chance to the talents of this country. Any gifted student will have the occasion to follow their dream. It is much more important that the focus of Romania to be on Romanian talents than on imported ones from outside of Romania. There are other events that invest in the promotion of international values. We wish to invest in national values in order to make them known to the world. We could not have a greater joy unless, after a few years, at least a name from those who participated at our Festival, in our masterclass session, will be an internationally renowned musician”, declared Serge Ioan Celibidache, the president of the Fundația Sergiu Celibidache.

The masterclass session continues after the following schedule
